Background Information

Dare 2 Share (D2S) is a non-profit, evangelical Christian organization headquartered in Wheat Ridge, Colorado that was co-founded by Greg Stier in 1991 with the goal of mobilizing teenagers to share their faith. Living just minutes away from Littleton, CO, the scene of the 1999 Columbine High School shootings, the tragedy triggered a pivotal turning point in Greg's career. Following those events, he resigned a pastorate at a church in Arvada, Colorado, to pursue D2S full-time.

Over the past 24 years, Greg and the ministry of D2S have impacted the lives of hundreds of thousand teenagers across the country, motivating and equipping them to relationally reach out to those who don't know Jesus with the gospel message of hope.

Mission

Dare 2 Share exists to mobilize teenagers to relationally and relentlessly reach their generation for Christ.

Vision

Dare 2 Share's vision is to mobilize 30,000 youth leaders to inspire and equip students to share the gospel with every teenager in America.

Founder Bio

Greg Stier is an unlikely candidate to lead a ministry like Dare 2 Share.

Almost aborted and raised in a violent urban setting, Greg grew up never knowing his biological father. It was when he met his real Father, his Heavenly Father, that everything changed. Because of the transformation he saw Jesus bring into his fist-throwing, body-building, crime-ridden family, he knew from the time he was eleven years old that he would spend the rest of his life preaching the transformational gospel of Jesus Christ.

Today, Greg leads a ministry that has equipped hundreds of thousands of teenagers to relationally and relentlessly share the gospel of Christ. Through large scale weekend conferences, week-long summer intensives, youth leader trainings, and books and curriculum, Greg is passionate about energizing teenagers to evangelize their world. As a former church planter and pastor, Greg believes in the power and potential of the church to transform entire cities with the gospel. And as a former youth leader, he is committed to seeing this transformation erupt from the next generation.

Greg is the author of fifteen books and countless articles. He has appeared on CNN, CBN, TBN, Focus on the Family and several other radio programs. He is a regular contributor to the Christian Post, Churchleaders.com and Group Magazine. He has been a featured speaker at Promise Keepers, Youth Specialties, Creation Festival, LifeFest and The Billy Graham Schools of Evangelism. Greg has been married to Debbie for twenty-two years and has two children whom he adores and one dog, which he tolerates. Greg resides with his family in Arvada, Colorado.
