POSITION SUMMARY

The Gospel Advancing Training Specialist (GATS) is a highly relational and results driven individual primarily responsible for developing strategies and tactics that mobilize influential youth leaders around the world to accelerate the Gospel Advancing Movement in their context. Youth ministry is defined differently around the world, so these two pillars – church assisting and youth mobilization for peer-to-peer evangelism – need to be a priority for this role.

TYPICAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Work Examples and Competencies listed are for illustrative purposes only and are not exhaustive.

The GATS's responsibilities include:

1. Gospel Advancing Relationships (50%)

- a. Work with strategic partner ministries to recruit, equip, and mobilize Gospel Advancing leaders both directly and indirectly.
- b. Recruit and resource Gospel Advancing Network leaders as a primary strategy of growing the world-wide Gospel Advancing movement.
- c. Work with denominational leaders, primarily those that are one tier removed from the "grass roots" movement whose focus is on youth ministry and/or evangelism, identifying those who are goers with Gospel Advancing and leveraging their influence to multiply the movement.
- d. Facilitate collaboration, community and with Gospel Advancing Leaders helping them grow in their Gospel Advancing journeys by developing Strategic Action Plans and multiplying the movement in their contexts.
- e. Provide intel from leaders reporting on ministry impact as well as best practices and ideas from the trenches as they implement their Strategic Action Plans.

2. Gospel Advancing Training (40%)

- a. Relied on as a trainer of core Dare 2 Share and Gospel Advancing training material.
- b. Leverage both in-person and online training opportunities to resource and learn from our Gospel Advancing leaders.
- c. Collaborate and contribute to the overall Gospel Advancing journey strategy.
